VPRJ ANNOUNCES COVID-19 TEST RESULTS

Williamsburg, Virginia – Virginia Peninsula Regional Jail (VPRJ) has received the results of the facility wide COVID-19 point prevalence testing which took place this past Tuesday, December 22, 2020. Of the nearly 450 tests conducted, 78 inmates tested positive for COVID-19. All 78 inmates who tested positive are currently asymptomatic; this is in addition to the single inmate who tested positive for COVID-19 last week. VPRJ can also report that seven staff members also tested positive for the virus.

VPRJ remains in contact with the Virginia Department of Health's (VDH) epidemiologist, as well as our local Peninsula Health District and our on-site medical staff. VPRJ remains committed to the health and safety of our inmate population and will provide updates as appropriate.
